In pursuance of disaster management protocol owing to Covid 19 pandemic affecting the people all over the world, AAM decided to conduct the competition online. It was an hour long competition for the senior category of students (viz., IX, X and XI standard) only and the competitors participated in the competition from their own residences. Altogether 198 out of 457 candidates registered initially from all-over the State had appeared and Ms. Sunaina Pati of Sarla Birla Gyan Jyoti, Amingaon topped the list with a score of 70 out of 100. By virtue of being the topper in third category Ms. Sunaina Pati is qualified for the award of Subratananda Dowerah Gold Medal sponsored by the family of late Dr. Subratananda Dowerah, an extraordinary Mathematician of Assam who met an untimely death at a very young age.

Following AAM convention the first five positions in order of merit have been sorted out as rank holders. AAM Talent Search Committee in consultation with leading office bearers of AAM Executive Committee have decided to award the rank holders with a cash prize of Rs.2000/- each.

Based on cut-off marks fixed by AAM Talent Search Committee, candidates are selected for certificates of merit and appreciation also. AAM certificates to all successful candidates will be sent through their respective emails within September 2020.

The cash prizes to the rank holders will be sent to the recipients through their respective bank accounts. In this connection, all the rank holders are requested to send details of their bank accounts along with IFSC codes as soon as possible since all transactions are to be completed within September 30, 2020.
